Privileged Account Activity Report

PLATFORM FEATURE UPDATE

Adlumin users now have access to a Privileged Account Activity Report, which provides an overview of events involving privileged accounts. Events highlighted include detections, object manipulations, and compromised accounts through our Darknet Exposure Module. The report highlights the most active accounts and network activity pertaining only to privileged accounts.

This report is located under Reports > Executive Reports > Additional Executive Reports.